FIGHTING RESUMED ON WESTERN FRONT

AIRMEN OF THE ALLIES ARE MORE AGGRESSIVE THAN EVER

FRENCH HAVE DRIVEN GERMANS OUT OF RANGE OF THE VERDUN FORTS--DESPERATE CONFLICTS IN MANY DISTRICTS

Paris, April 1.—A renewal of heavy fighting is reported all along the battle front in Flanders, France and Alsace-Lorraine. French and British airmen are more active than ever before. They have bombarded twenty cities, towns, railroad junctions and army camps within the German lines in the last twenty-four hours. Many Germans are reported killed.

The Germans have been driven out of range of the outer Verdun forts. Severe fighting is going on in the forest of Lapetie, Beausejour, Perthes, Lesmesnil, Pour de Paris and Bagatelle are scenes of terrific battles. A fierce artillery battle is progressing between Vieville and Buxerelles in the Wever district.

UNCEASING ACTIVITY

Paris, April 1.—A German observation post has been blown up by a mine. The German counter attacks in the La Petre forest have been repulsed. A battalion of Landwehr lost heavily near Parroy.

Belgian aviators bombarded the aviation camps at Handseme and the railway junction of Corterimack.

SHUT OFF SUB OIL SUPPLY

London, April 1.—The Dutch steamer Lodewijk Vannassau, seized by a British warship and taken to New Haven, is charged with supplying German submarines with oil.

SWOBODA SUSPECTED OF BEING GERMAN SPY

Paris, April 1.—The American ambassador is investigating the arrest of William Swoboda, charged with attempting to blow up the liner La Touraine. He claims he is an American citizen. The police declare they have positive proof that Swoboda is a German spy.

OTTOMANS WON'T GIVE UP ADRIANOPLE

Massing Troops in Order to Meet Any Bulgarian Move

Sofia, April 1.—The Turks are concentrating troops and guns at Adrianople. It is believed this is precautionary to meet any future action of Bulgaria against Turkey.

ROCKEFELLER A ROOTER

Uncle John has Become a Baseball Enthusiast

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 31.—Since witnessing the exhibition game played by the Brooklyn Dodgers at Daytona, Fla., John D. Rockefeller has become an ardent baseball fan. He has given the use of three acres of land to the Pocantico Hill's Athletic Club and will aid in building a diamond and grandstand.

Manager Kerrigan expects to have a speedy team and he hopes Mr. Rockefeller will come out and root for it.

NOTHING SO GOOD FOR A COUGH OR COLD

When you have a cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. Boroff, Elida, Ohio, says: "Ever since my daughter Ruth was cured of a severe cold and cough by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy two years ago, I have felt kindly disposed toward the manufacturers of that preparation. I know of nothing so good to relieve a cough or cure a cold. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

PRESIDENT WILSON CONTINUES EFFORTS FOR PEACE

ATTEMPTS TO RECONCILE WARRING NATIONS MEET WITH SCANT ENCOURAGEMENT

Rome, April 1.—That President Wilson is continuing his efforts to establish peace through mediation, was reliably learned today. An Italian official, Thomas Nelson Page is understood to be in the president's plans. The ambassador declined to make any prediction, but did not seem hopeful of the outlook. Failure of the allies to force the Dardanelles is probably all that has kept the Italians from declaring war, but it is considered more than probable that Italy will enter the conflict by May 1.

TEN THOUSAND MEN RESUMED TOIL

EIGHTY CHICAGO FACTORIES HAVE RECOMMENCED OPERATION

Chicago, April 1.—Nearly 10,000 men went to work today in the factories and steel mills on Chicago Heights, which had been closed and the men idle since January 1st. Some eighty factories began operations at normal scale today.

RUSSIAN FLEET HAS RETREATED

CONSTANTINOPLE TOO HARD TO CAPTURE

AFTER SHOOTING UP DEFENSELESS PORTS, BLACK SEA SQUADRON STEAMED AWAY TOWARD ODESSA

Constantinople, April 1.—After shelling ineffectually the outer forts of the Bosphorus, the Russian Black Sea fleet bombarded Turkish coal ports in the Egli districts of Asia for the second time, sinking nine vessels and causing other damage. The Russian aeroplanes cooperating with the warships were driven back from the coast by Ottoman airmen.

After bombarding Sangulduk, Ergli and Koslu, the Russian fleet sailed northward.

The situation in the Dardanelles is unchanged.
